Whether you're looking to treat yourself (and why not?) or one of your nearest and dearest, a beautiful piece of jewellery would make a perfect present this Christmas. From sparkling stocking fillers to incredible one-off creations that will become treasured heirlooms in time, we've found the best jewels to gift this season to suit every taste and budget.

Chic contemporary pieces

From Alighieri's poetic, travel-inspired talismans and Anissa Kermiche's whimsical designs, to Emefa Cole's naturalistic gold studs and Astley Clarke's contemporary take on a classic pearl ring, these jewels all blend great modern design with flair and personality. Perfect for those who love jewellery that's a true conversation-starter.
